

1826

The first legal land grant is issued to Austin's Old 300 colonist

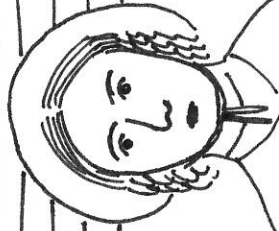

1824

Charles Babbage begins to design the Analytical Engine [a forerunner of the modern computer]

1832

James Long brings his wife, Jane, to Bolivar before heading out to free Texas from Spain

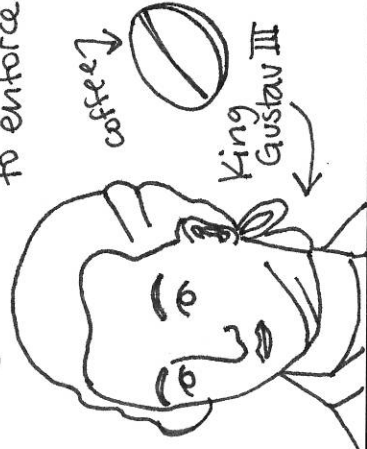

1836

The Legend of Sleepy Hollow

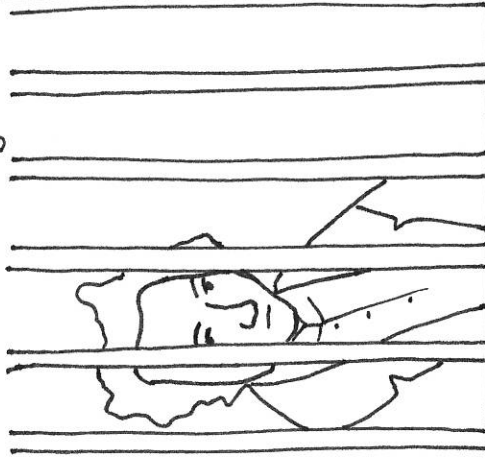

is published by Washington Irving

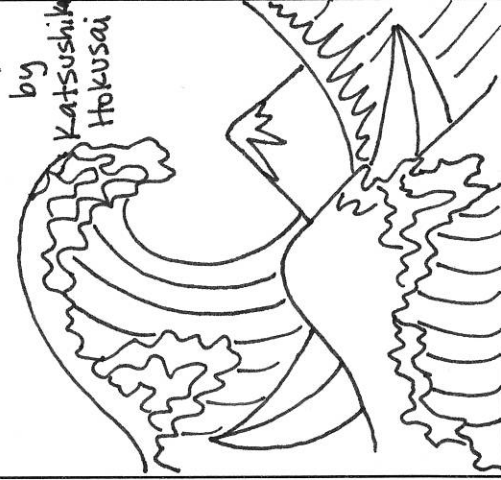

Sweden officially lifts the ban on drinking coffee that King Gustav III tried to enforce

Stephen F. Austin is thrown in jail in Mexico City

The Great Wave off Kanagawa woodblock print is completed

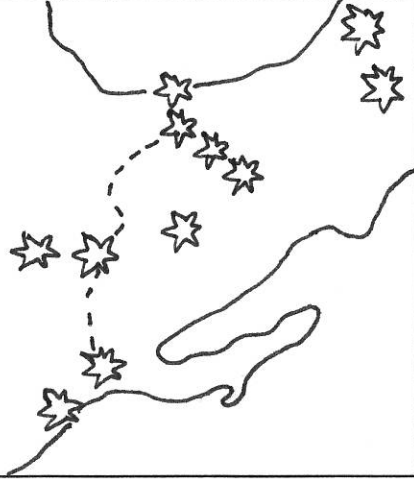

INDEPENDENCE FREEDOM AND JUSTICE

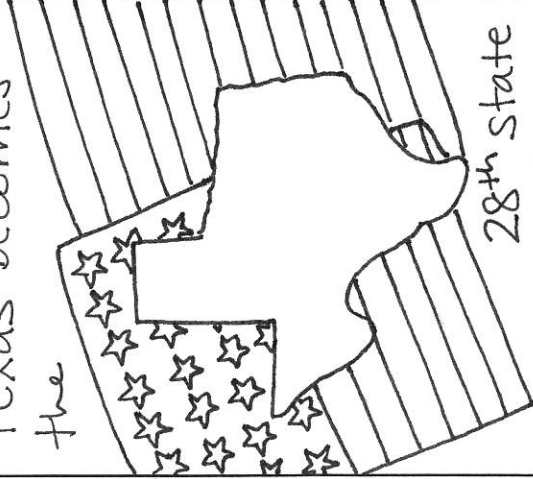

The Republic of Fredonia is established near present day Nacogdoches, Texas

1848

The Mexican-American War ends

Texas becomes the 28th State to join the U.S.

1845

Jean Lafitte takes control of Galveston Island

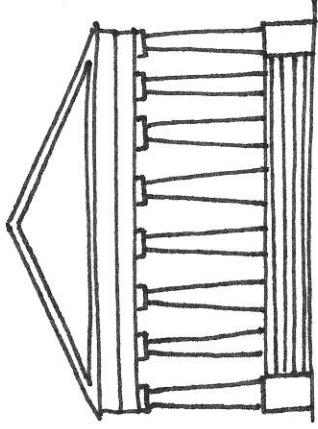

The first ship of the new Texas navy arrives in Galveston

San Jacinto

1839

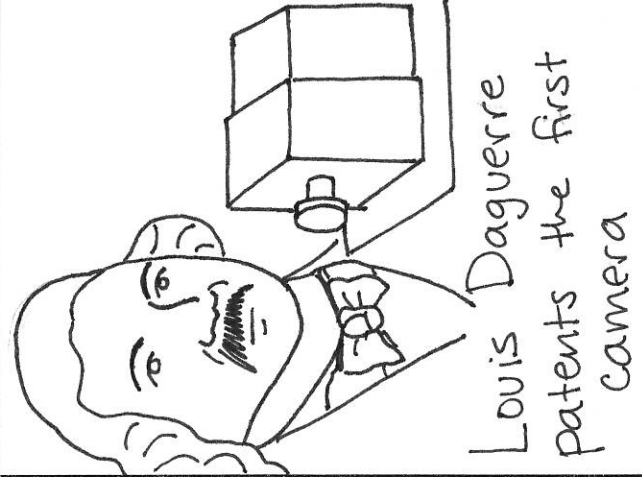

The Second Bank of the United States starts to operate in Philadelphia

Nevermore

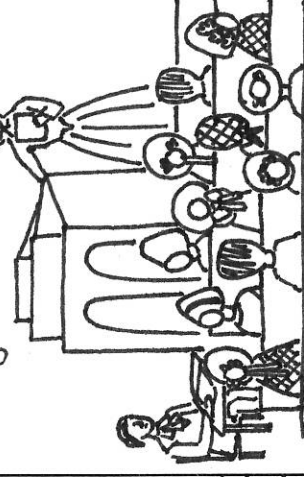

Edgar Allen Poe publishes "the Raven" in The Evening Mirror

1817

Louis Daguerre patents the first camera

The first women's rights convention is held at Seneca Falls, New York

1835

1834

1822

1820

Battle of Velasco

Texans led by John Austin quarrel with the Mexican fort at Velasco over a cannon

Spain

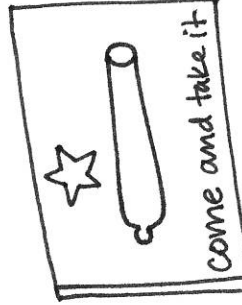

recognizes

Mexico

as an independant nation

The first Anglo settlers arrive in Texas to become Austins Old 300 colonists

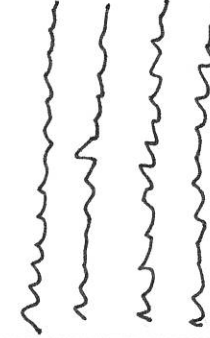

Battle of Gonzales

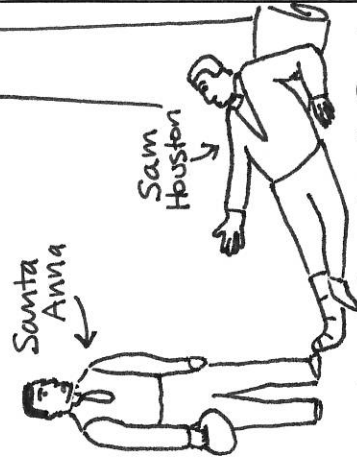

A detachment of the Mexican Army tries to take back a cannon lent to the Texas settlers

The Federal Republic of Mexico is established with the adoption of the Federal Constitution of the United Mexican States

Battle of San Jacinto

Mexican President Santa Anna is captured by the small Texas army

Hans Christian Anderson begins publishing

Fairy Tales told for children

